We are very happy to know that most of the students could successfully complete the study of given syllabus along with worksheets completion during this period. Well done students For those who were not able to complete, we would suggest them to carry on with the studies during the month of May and complete their writing work.

Students can utilize their vacation time in completing the written work in notebook (if it is pending) and submit it after 1st June, 2021 as and when the teachers resume their duty. Please remember that marks are counted for notebook completion as well in internal assessment. Once again, we would wholeheartedly thank all the parents for their moral support in this pandemic situation to guide the child to study at home regularly. It was possible for us to give our best to our children, in this lockdown situation only because of you parents. We shall remain grateful to you.
