CLASS ROOM RULES 2015-16

(please discuss these rules with your child)

Guidelines for Parents:

The best way of parenting: Demonstrate the ideal behaviour you appreciate the most in front of your child. - Sadguru Jaggi Vasudev

Respect teachers and the school staff. Do not talk about the school staff in front of the child. This helps the child to learn from the teacher with utmost dedication and commitment.

- Appreciate whatever progress made by your child.
- Avoid comparing your child with other children.
- Avoid comparing your child's present performance with the performance in previous school as the difficulty level, teaching and assessment pattern is different.
- Convey grievances and suggestions in a positive way to school staff.
- Do not check other student's papers and respect confidentiality.
- Listen to teachers' suggestions patiently and follow them.
- Request teachers to suggest specific actions to be taken at home for the betterment of your child.
- Write honest feedback about your child's progress and teaching in school.
